Enjoy the benefits of hosting your next event at our Mexican Resorts

To qualify for the 0% Value Added Tax (VAT), specific guidelines are established in article 29 the VAT law:

1. Applies only to foreign tourists who enter the country to participate in congresses, conventions, expositions and fairs and excludes ALL incentive travel (an award trip given to people in recognition of good work performance or for any other reason name given to such incentive travel).
2. The exemption of the 16% VAT also relates to hospitality services such as: accomodations, airport-hotel transportation, audiovisual, food & beverage and other services managed by the hotel when given as part of the hotel package. In addition, hotel services given two nights prior and two nights post the main event are included in these services and eligible for the reduction of the VAT to 0%.
3. Group payment must be done on either of these ways:
 - With a credit card issued abroad.
 - Wire transfer of funds from abroad.

Any other form of payment would be unacceptable and invalidate the exemptions of the 16% VAT.

4. The following documents are required from every foreign attendee.
The VAT exemption is not applicable for mexican guests.
 - Copy of immigration card (given to the tourist upon arrival to Mexico).
 - Copy of passport or birth certificate.
 - Completion of registration card, including hotel guest's signature.

General conditions:

- Individual F&B Consumptions does not qualify for the VAT exemption.
- The 3% IH (tax) must be paid notwithstanding the VAT exemption.
